

Accounting & Finance Career journey

Strategic, analytical & enabling

The Accounting and Finance team is responsible for running the accounting and financial activities of an organisation.

They analyse the economic stability of the company and provide financial information to other departments, enabling these departments to make budgeting and investment decisions.

Accounting & Finance role examples

- National Finance Manager
- Commercial Manager
- Senior Finance Analyst
- Management Accountant
- Reporting Analyst
- National Finance Manager
- Commercial Manager
- Senior Finance Analyst
- Finance Analyst
- Management Accountant
- Reporting Analyst
- Finance Administrator
- Finance Graduate
- Commercial Analyst
- Senior Commercial Analyst
- Commercial Partner
- Senior Commercial Partner
- Administrative Coordinator

Competencies developed and experiences obtained by working in Accounting & Finance

-  Drivers of commercial success
-  Drivers of future readiness
-  Results achievers
-  Collaborative partners
-  Builders of customer value

Why choose a career in Accounting & Finance?

Account and Finance departments are such an integral part of a business with a key focus on communicating financial data in a practical, easy to understand way. Best suited to sharp, analytical thinkers who are also strong communicators able to share insights, identify improvement opportunities and offer solutions.

Our people represent all parts of our community, and a career with BlueScope Distribution can lead you down many different pathways. Being part of BlueScope Distribution means you can pursue your career goals and aspirations.

bluescopedistribution.com.au

 Follow us on LinkedIn

