

Warehousing, Distribution & Operations Career journey

Safety, productivity & efficiency

The Warehousing, Distribution and Operations teams are responsible for processing, storing and handling our steel and aluminium products ensuring they are received, stored and distributed to our customers.

These departments are involved in safety, cost, productivity, efficiency, DIFOT and maintenance activities to add value by creating a competitive advantage through cost leadership, quality and first-class safety practices.

Warehousing, Distribution & Operations role examples

- Operations Supervisor
- Dispatch Coordinator
- Inventory Controller
- Production Scheduler
- Reliability Coordinator
- Storeperson
- Machine Operator
- Operations Leader
- State Operations Manager

Why choose a career in Warehousing, Distribution & Operations?

Warehousing and Distribution is a great career choice for those who enjoy hands on, fast paced environment that directly contributes to superior customer experience. It is a great team environment and suits those who enjoy physical work, learning a variety of skills, have a passion for continuous improvement and working efficiently to achieve tangible outcomes and results. With safety a key factor in these career streams, people who are passionate about doing things correctly, in a safe manner are very successful in these roles.

Competencies developed and experiences obtained by working in Warehousing, Distribution & Operations

-  Working and maintaining machines and processing equipment
-  Practical application of world class safety principles
-  Collaborative partners
-  Continuous learning & development
-  Results achievers
-  Creative problem solving

Our people represent all parts of our community, and a career with BlueScope Distribution can lead you down many different pathways. Being part of BlueScope Distribution means you can pursue your career goals and aspirations.

bluescopedistribution.com.au

Follow us on LinkedIn

